Q.	When can the market expect to be updated on the long-promised project economics which include the 2018 drilling data.
A.	As noted in the RNS dated 11 June 2020, with the completion of the metallurgical results for the nickel and copper concentrates, as well as the receipt of non-binding indicative offtake terms which covers both concentrates (as well as the by-product metals of platinum, palladium, gold, silver etc), the Company can now use this information for the calculation of reserves, cut-off grades, mine scheduling and the project economics. The ability to generate and market two concentrates can have a material impact on the reserves, cut-off grades etc. This work is currently underway.

Q.	The Board of Directors recently advised the market that the license was at risk if the lockdown was extended indefinitely and an extension to the 1st December 2020 deadline not granted. Could you also please advise whether an extension has been sought to the deadline, if it hasn't yet, will it. If so, are the board of directors confident it will be granted.
	Is AMC still on target to complete its TEO by December 20 given that countries have started lifting restrictions?

	Can you also advise if the 1st December TEO deadline will be met and if not, the company has applied for an extension and what are its chances of being granted?

If so, which Directors and Senior Staff are taking part.  Are all the Directors continuing to take shares in lieu of salary?
A.	As noted in the RNS dated 2 December 2019, certain Directors and Executive Management participated in a subscription of shares in satisfaction of salaries and fees. The option to take shares in lieu of cash is open to all Directors and Executive Management. The Company must be in an open period for such grants of shares to be placed.

A.	As often discussed in many of Amur’s presentations, the definition of a Non-Disclosure Agreement precludes the Company from discussing the existence or absence of any such NDA.

Q.	Given you want a huge increase in the number of shares, can shareholders be given a chance to vote on future placings and reasons as to why they are required?
